

Celebrating 80 Years and Counting!

Since 1941, The Planning Council has been in the forefront of local and regional human services planning. Below are just a few of the organizations, programs and services that The Council has helped create over the past 80 years. Thank you to all of our partner organizations who continue the legacy that The Planning Council founders, leadership and staff have developed over the last 8 decades!

